

WE ARE HIRING!

Valley Publishing Group

We are building an editorial team at Valley Publishing Group as we celebrate our growth in the book publishing industry. We are seeking developmental editors, line editors, and proofreaders to assist us in serving the self-publishing community across the United States and Canada - independent authors of all genres, including magazines.

Qualities of the ideal candidate for book editors and proofreaders are:

- Experienced and comfortable working with writers and authors of various genres, demonstrate excellent communication skills.
- Ability to demonstrate their proficiency or share their preference in at least one genre.
- College degrees are respected and appreciated, of course, but commensurate experience and contributions to published works are also valued and considered.
- Knowledge of proper use of citations and references is mandatory (particularly for proofreaders)
- Proficiency and consistency of a candidate's preferred style guide is expected and should be easily demonstrated.
- Proficient use of at least one editing software program (besides Microsoft Editor).

We are also hiring copy editors and proofreaders for our parent company, MAYS Multimedia.

MAYS Multimedia, serves local, national, and global clients (individuals, businesses and non-profit organizations) with a wide variety of digital and printed materials (brochures, calendars, signage, business cards, vendor materials, and custom printed materials of all types).
